A BROADWAY PRODUCER'S OPINION ON EVERYTHING BROADWAY AND BEYOND

PRO

This membership guideline is used by both existing members and new members of The Producer's Perspective PRO. Its purpose is:

- To provide the mission of the membership
- To provide information on what you can expect of the membership

What is the Producer's Perspective PRO?

The Producer's Perspective PRO is an online training program, resource guide and active community for theatre professionals looking to advance their production or career.

Through a combination of online training courses taught by Tony Award-winning Broadway Producer Ken Davenport, monthly Live Office Hours Calls, weekly tips, monthly industry newsletters, and in person networking events, The Producer's Perspective PRO enables Writers, Producers, Actors, Directors, General Managers and other professionals to learn in the way that best suits their needs.

Our Mission

Here at The Producer's Perspective PRO, we're on a mission to help get 5000 shows produced by the year 2025.

And hopefully one of them is yours.

How are we going to do that?

We're going to double down on our efforts to provide you with all the information, resources, as well as the specific steps you need to help get your shows onto the page and then onto a stage.

Respect

We are a thriving community, and with that, respect goes without saying. Relationships are key in our industry, so in order to maintain positive relationships with the Davenport Theatrical staff and other members of PRO, please be aware of the language you choose to use in all social posts and emails.

We're all in this together to create a welcoming environment. Let's treat everyone with respect.

Healthy debates are natural, but kindness is required.

Being part of this group requires mutual trust. Authentic, expressive discussions make groups great, but may also be sensitive and private. What's shared in the group should stay in the group.

Collaboration

What makes a community amazing is when members are more focused on helping each other, than on helping themselves. Be as helpful as possible and everyone benefits!

Always Learning

We have a strong commitment to consistently push ahead. We offer a multitude of resources to learn from, but a major part of why our membership community is successful, is due to the passion and willingness of our members to learn even when we think we already have the answers we need.

We are:

- Open to learning and developing
- Accepting that no matter how good we are we can always improve
- Constantly listening to feedback and ideas, and being ready to freely share our own experiences

- We're not scared of being different, we embrace it
- We make ideas happen and we are excited share our successes
- We inspire others to try new approaches
