

PLAY DEVELOPMENT

Strange Bedfellows has had staged readings performed by The Royal Nonesuch, Stated Island Shakespearean Theatre and Phoenix Stage Company. It is scheduled to have a radio reading in the spring as part of Boston's Play Café series. An annual reading of the play has been incorporated into The Conference House annual celebration of the historic peace conference. It may also receive similar inclusion to annual celebrations at The Proprietary House and The Indian Queen Tavern (where the play actually takes place).

The play was a runner-up or finalist in seven national playwrighting competitions (The Stanley Drama Award, The Lark Literary Wing, Saints & Sinners, The Harriet Lake Festival of New Plays at The Orlando Shakespeare Festival, Shawnee Original Playhouse Series, March Forth Reading Series and Writer's Digest).

It has yet to have a full-scale professional production.
