

JEFF STOLZER BIOGRAPHY

Jeff Stolzer's full-length plays include SURVIVORS (Arts Club of Washington National Playwriting Award; O'Neill Playwrights Conference semifinalist; Princess Grace Award semifinalist), UNSPORTSMANLIKE CONDUCT (Woodward/Newman Drama Award finalist; Last Frontier Theater Conference; Blank Theatre Living Room Series); STORAGE LOCKER (IATI Theater Mainstage; Pickering Award for Playwriting Excellence third prize); and PARALYZED (Ohio State-Newark New Play Contest third prize; O'Neill Playwrights Conference semifinalist; McLaren Memorial Comedy Playwriting Competition semi-finalist).

His short plays have been produced at festivals in New York City and around the country. EMERGENCY ROOM, a darkly comedic one-act about our dysfunctional health care system, received the Upstage Playwright Award from Houston's Upstage Theatre.

Jeff was a writer for ABC's WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE and Fox's SPORTS GENIUSES. He was also the sole writer of more than 400 episodes for the syndicated radio program LITTLE KNOWN LEGENDS OF SPORTS.
