

THE PRODUCER'S PERSPECTIVE

GETTING YOU TO THE NEXT STAGE.

Hello Pros!

And welcome to the Xmas Eve edition of the Tip of the Week!

This is a time to spend with family and friends, so first, I'd like to welcome the newest members of our ever-expanding family. Please welcome our newest Pros Joel, Arabella, Walter, Mark, Vicki, Chris and Beau.

This week's tip is an easy and important one. But first a bit of a depressing question.

Do you know what one of the most common regrets people have at the end of their lives?

It's not that they didn't make enough money. Or travel to exotic places. Or even seen Hamilton.

It's that they didn't spend enough time with friends and family.

So this week's tip on this holiday week when so many of us have time off . . . spend time with your friends and family. Quality time. Put away your lap top. Your phone. Yes, even take a break from working on your script and latest project that I've been prodding you to get to.

Let it all go this week and get the best kind of support and energy there is in the universe . . . love, laughter and companionship from friends and family.

I promise it'll help create the foundation for an even more amazing 2019.

Go get 'em. And by "em" I mean your friends and family and give 'em so love. :-)

Best,

Ken

P.S. You know what one of the other big regrets is? "I wish I'd had the courage to live a life true to myself, not the life others expected of me." We'll get to that next year. Or as I call 2019 . . . YOUR year.
